DALETPLUS SOFTWARE SOLUTIONS HIT THE SHOW FLOOR AT NAB 2006

Dalet Digital Media Systems will showcase its winning DaletPlus product line in Las Vegas, Nevada

New York, NY – February 16, 2006 – Dalet Digital Media Systems, a leading provider of media management tools for more than a decade, will demonstrate its comprehensive DaletPlus product line and partner showcases at NAB 2006. The latest Dalet solutions will be exhibited on stand SL.1132.

DaletPlus software solutions empower tapeless workflows

Because DaletPlus products are based on DaletPlus, an Enterprise Media Platform (EMP), they facilitate the implementation of collaborative tape-less workflows and drastically enhance productivity by providing immediate access to valuable media assets.

Enterprise Media Platform (EMP):
An information system that integrates the whole digital content production and distribution workflow.

DaletPlus software solutions run on standard IT infrastructure and integrate proprietary broadcast equipment so as to implement mission critical systems for professional content providers. The DaletPlus product line includes:

- DaletPlus News Suite - The only end-to-end digital newsroom. DaletPlus News Suite combines an advanced newsroom computer system with easy-to-use production tools and reliable news play-out automation;
- DaletPlus News Library - The first media asset management and archive system designed for news. DaletPlus News Library leverages the MOS protocol and the MXF file format to interface with legacys systems and provide a turn-key solution for archiving, indexing and distributing news material;
- DaletPlus Media Library – Turn-key media asset management for multi-location production and play-out. DaletPlus Media Library combines a flexible content catalogue and workflow engine with rules based scheduling, conversion and transfer tools to unleash the benefits of media asset management for distributed production and play-out facilities;

- DaletPlus ActiveLog – Failsafe recording, logging, archiving and distribution. DaletPlus ActiveLog is an enterprise-strength platform for recording, logging, archiving and distributing audio and video feeds across multiple sites.
- DaletPlus Radio Suite - Enterprise-wide radio production and broadcast platform. DaletPlus Radio Suite facilitates collaborative digital radio production, programming and play-out across the enterprise by offering easy-to-use tools integrated in a flexible workflow management platform.
